The pricing

As wholesale we understand that you would want to engage with a number of giveaways this Christmas season or into the New Year. We have managed to work out an excellent percentage mark for this service to you. The price compared to the online single orders could go down by about 60% per unit. The amount per 50 tshirts is as stated in this offer but we're ready to answer any questions as they arrive, also note that this offer is a limited period one so grab yours now.

Opportunities for selling

With the tide turning in the economy and these uncertainties in jobs looming, it is high time we create our own opportunities through the creative resources we see around us. Buy some and resell, make some savings!

A swirly design with some slogans would probably do that job of catching attention on a tshirt that cost you a little price. This can be resold and we can support you with some marketing graphics to push sales forward for you.

We wouldn't need to add our logos to the designs as this would be your retail but please you would need to inform us in writing that you would be reselling these tshirts that we'll be providing for you.

When you start earning that cash, "remember us" I would say!
